"Having seen the advertisements in the daily papers, and noted the many different people who had taken Dr. Green's Nervura band and nerve life in, to try a bottle. I am very thankful that I did so for I had suffered for over a year with pains in my back so great that I could not

"I was also troubled with that horrible coated feeling each time after eating, no matter how little it might be. I started to take Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, and

MRS. WILLIAM BARTELS.

"I must say the improvement in my health was wonderful. I am now taking the third bottle, and my friends who have not seen me for the past two or three months hardly know me as I have gained in flesh and also in strength. That dark sallow look has also left my face and I feel and look like a different person altogether."

You may not be sick, but still you are out of order, do not eat or sleep well and do not feel just right. You must prepare for the debilitating changes of spring by getting your system in perfect condition. Use Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It will make you well.

It is the discovery of Dr. Greene, of 35 West 14th street, New York City, the successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. He can be consulted free, personally or by letter.

DEMURRERS ARGUED FRIDAY.

To-day was set for the hearing of the argument on the demurrer to the indictment against Lawyer John C. Munzinger and ex-Civil Service Examiner Henry W. Beardsley, who are charged with grand larceny of the first degree, etc.

Both the defendants were in Part I. of the General Sessions this morning. Abraham Levy appeared for Munzinger, and J. Frank Lloyd and ex-Judge Ingersoll for Beardsley. Assistant District for a stay of the argument on the ground that he was not ready to argue the demurrer and do justice to his client. A similar application was made on behalf of Beardsley.

He asked for a week's time in which to be heard on the matter, and after much discussion on both sides, Judge Martine fixed Friday as the day for the argument.

The defendants' counsel also stated

Mr. Lindsay objected to the delay, and stated that the indictment had been drawn under the old form of the law. He also said that the indictment showed made a motion that the District-Attorney be ordered to furnish the defendant with a bill of particulars, as the allegations are so general that it is difficult to prepare the case for trial.

There are two counts in the indictment, and he was in doubt as to what kind of

Mr. Lindsay also opposed this motion and Judge Martine promptly denied it. Judge Martine said that the argument must go on Friday, as he would not grant another adjournment.

Lassiter Has a Judgment Against Hose.

R. T. Lassiter, an employee in the United States post office, Memphis, Tenn., has secured a judgment against the city of Memphis for $100,000, the amount of his back pay.

Lawyer Calvin D. Van Name, counsel for Hise, stated that his client formerly owned the right for placing on the market certain well-known confections.

Hose had also become indebted to his wife, who had a separate estate, and

 Some trace of the venomous disease is almost sure to remain in the blood to torture the life of the victim, which it does not wholly conquer. Therefore, it is necessary to get rid of other impurities from the blood. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best medicine known. Hundreds of young people owe their good health to it. CURE FOR IS cure. Read his latest letter:

 which affected his hearing. The abscess grew worse. It discharged freely and the matter was quite offensive. We were obliged to use syringes twice a day. After more than a year's treatment, however, it was cured. I have healed the abscess, and it was likely he would be cured.
Always be True.
 This was a great sorrow to us, and almost discouraged. We wrote a letter of inquiry to Dr. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. They replied stating that there similarly afflicted had been cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla. We were able to write to our boy. The news was a great chance for a better future he had taken two bottles of President McClellan on the Proposed Sidewalk Act.

President McClellan, of the Board of Aldermen, thinks the Law Committee of the Board still has looked up the law and its powers under the same before deciding to recommend for adoption the ordinance which would require to number the sidewalks to within three feet of the curb.

It is the general opinion of those versed in municipal law that the ordinance will not find water, because the ordinance allows no money to be levied to enforce the same.

The report of the Committee will not be approved if President McClellan can prevent it.

SCHOOLEY JUMPED HIS BAIL.

Did Not Appear To-day for Trial for Forgery.

Lawyer William H. Schooley, who was to have been placed on trial before the Grand Jury in Part II. of the General Sessions to-day on charges of forgery and grand larceny, did not respect his name when that case was called for trial, and he and a friend produced him in his stead.

When the trial had expired and Schooley was again before the Recorder ordering the bail forfeited, he was issued a bench warrant for his arrest.
